

FRIENDS OF WEMYSS BAY STATION NEWSLETTER

Here he is, at last!

It has been a long wait for us all, but on 13th May, the statue of "the boy" was officially unveiled for us by John Yellowlees of ScotRail. The Friends commissioned the sculptor, Angela Hunter, to create a figure to represent holidays "doon the watter", the main reason for the building of our lovely rail and ferry terminal at Wemyss Bay. She proposed a young boy, clutching his fishing line and model boat, heading down to catch the ferry for Rothesay, full of anticipation. In the afternoon, Angela talked to us about her work and about the processes of creating our statue. We have asked for suggestions from the public for a name for him, and these are rolling in. The statue is proving very popular with everyone passing through the station, with many parents taking photos of their children alongside him. The Gallery is showing an exhibition of paintings by local artists Anne McLean and Doris Walker from 27th May to 10th June. It is some time since we had such an event, which makes this one specially welcome.
